

NIGHT VISIONS

CVI Honors John T. Rhett III

“The responsibility to lift the marginalized lies squarely on those who are able.”

John T. Rhett III

John has served the Center for the Visually Impaired since 1990 as a Trustee on the CVI Board and the CVI Foundation Board. He led the Board as Chair from 2010 to 2012 and served a term as Treasurer. John currently serves on our Endowment Committee. With his astute stewardship the endowment has grown to provide stability and strength to the organization.

With more than 44 years of investment banking and brokerage experience, John recently retired as the Chairman and CEO of SunTrust Investment Services. John’s career began in New York at Merrill Lynch as an institutional trader on the municipal bond desk. In 1980, he joined the investment banking firm, Robinson-Humphrey, where he was Head of Municipal Trading and Marketing for six years. In September 2013, he joined both Red Rock Strategic Partners and Red Rock Advisory Group as Chairman and Senior Managing Director, advising financial institutions and private business owners. John is a guest lecturer for undergraduate and graduate studies with the Georgia Tech College of Management.

John’s other civic responsibilities have included serving as vice chairman of the Parish Council of Our Lady of Assumption Catholic Church. Additionally, John is a trustee of Marist School in Atlanta and chairs the investment committee. He has also recently been named to the Development Authority Board for the city of Brookhaven, Georgia.

Night Visions: A Gala Auction to Benefit the Center for the Visually Impaired

March 24, 2022 | 6:30 PM | Atlanta History Center